

Hudson Horizons' CEO Wins Gold in Best in Biz Awards 2013 International

Daryl Bryant has been named the gold winner in Entrepreneur/Founder of the Year in Best in Biz Awards 2013 International

SADDLE BROOK, NJ, USA, July 24, 2013 / EINPresswire.com/ -- CEO of Hudson Horizons, Daryl Bryant, has been named the gold winner in Entrepreneur/Founder of the Year in Best in Biz Awards 2013 International, an independent business awards program judged by members of the press and industry analysts.

A self-proclaimed "serial entrepreneur," Mr. Bryant directs multiple business endeavors and manages to keep each on the forefront of innovation. His longest standing business, Hudson Horizons, is an integrated Web agency that provides clients with sophisticated ways to help each become successful online.

More than 150 public and private companies representing all sectors of the economy from over 25 countries competed in Best in Biz Awards' International's inaugural program. Bryant is thrilled to receive such an outstanding award and anticipates a bright future:

"The growth and development of Hudson Horizons over the years, particularly this past year, has been incredible to witness; this award helps support that. I am very proud of what we have been able to accomplish here at Hudson and look forward to even more growth and success in the future."

Winners were determined based on scoring from a panel of 43 judges drawn from top-tier publications and media outlets from 18 countries, with all continents represented.
