

Powko Industries Awarded GSA Schedule for Light Towers

PRAIRIEVILLE, LA, USA, July 24, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With its recent attainment of a U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) contract, Federal Government agencies can now directly procure light towers from Powko.

Powko, the leader in mobile lighting solutions, recently announced that the company has been awarded a U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) contract for light towers. In order to be eligible for a GSA contract, a company needs to fulfill a set of essential criteria and have a proven track record. The online store, <http://www.lighttower.net/> is a leading source for light towers manufactured by Powko and other leading name brands.

With its attainment of a GSA contract, Powko can now successfully address the needs of the government for mobile lighting solutions for a variety of operations. The Powko sales staff will now be expected to work closely with local, state and federal governments to help them procure products at fair and reasonable approved pricing and licensed terms.

In its capacity as a vendor partner for government agencies, Powko stands to benefit from expeditious contract fulfillment capabilities, with fewer obstacles.

Kyle Tonguis, Powko President said, "Becoming an authorized vendor partner enables Powko to provide more opportunities to its dealers and to support the government partners quickly and more efficiently. Powko understands the needs of government agencies and the importance of making Powko products available to them through a GSA contract."

The GSA contract is a significant step towards enhancing Powko's already strong presence among government and military branches. Powko has an established portfolio of being a leading supplier and manufacturer of mobile lighting solutions including light towers USA, spanning over a decade.
