Learn more advantages of this Nylon dog harness:

This product was made of health-safe nylon material that is perfect in all aspects (starting from price, quality and finishing with low maintenance).

Quick release buckle sufficiently eases the process of putting the harness on and off.

2 attachment leash points - front and back (this feature is greatly appreciated by professional dog trainers). If a leash is attached to a front D-ring a dog is much easier to control. A dog handler won't be constantly pulled.

Underbelly strap is removable.

Let a dog build impressive muscles using side D-rings for pulling activity.

Identification patch ability on both sides with Velcro (one patch set included for FREE with purchase) great advantage, especially the part about one free set of patches according to a customer's choice.

Quickly adjustable girth and under belly straps (perfect fit is ensured, provided a dog's measurements are taken correctly).

Complete freedom while being harnessed.

Non-rubbing smooth edges.

Light as cloudlet.

It is vital for a dog to feel good on stuffy days. To prevent any health problems because of high temperature Fordogtrainers offers to use special nylon dog harnesses designed for Summer season. Designers that work at Fordogtrainers know their onions and they put their hearts and souls into products they design.
