AMHERST, NH, USA, July 25, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- There are undoubtedly many dessert shops in Amherst NH; however, one seems to walk away with all of the awards lately.

Amherst NH pastry shop Frederick's Pastries, not far removed from winning The Knot's 2013 Best of Weddings pick for Amherst and a similar recognition from the Hippo magazine and New Hampshire Magazine, has won yet another award: the prestigious and highly-coveted "Best of Bride" from New Hampshire Bride Magazine.

This is the fifth straight year the Best of Bride poll has been conducted, and in a sign of its growing popularity, the ballot gets more respondents every year, going from 1400 in 2010 to more than twice that number this year. It could be said the poll is more representative of the true tastes of Granite State Denizens. And when it comes to pastries in Amherst NH, New Hampshire Bride Magazine poll respondents clearly find Frederick's Pastries to be delectable.

"It's the magazine's fifth annual poll," said Barbara Coles, editor of Bride. "We felt the poll was a way to recognize people in New Hampshire's bridal industry who strive every day to provide great service for couples who are planning one of the most important days in their life."

Susan Robert, the proprietor of the award-winning Amherst bakery, was gracious in her acceptance of the honor.

"We are truly honored to be recognized by the readers of New Hampshire Bride magazine and also local brides and grooms," said Susan Lozier Robert, proprietor of Frederick's Pastries. "Weddings are an exciting time and it brings us joy to know that we provide the wedding cakes and cupcakes for so many happy couples."

The print edition of the magazine will be out in September.
