

Personalized Gift Website Makes Back To School More Fun with New Line of Back to School Gifts

GiftsForYouNow.com Announces New Line of Personalized Back to School Gifts

BURR RIDGE, IL, USA, August 6, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GiftsForYouNow.com, a personalized gift website located in the Chicago, IL area, is thrilled to announce that they have launched a brand new line of personalized back to school gifts!

This month, children nationwide will be heading back to school. While the end of summer can often be a bittersweet time, GiftsForYouNow.com's primary goal is to turn a time of year that is often associated with a sad ending into an exciting and productive beginning. The online retailer is offering a number of personalized backpacks, lunch totes, pencil cases, water bottles, locker magnets, mouse pads and laundry bags all meant to send your child back to school with something special and personalized.

The website prides itself on offering very unique designs that you can't find anywhere else. They're offering a number of options for their personalized back to school products that are great for girls and boys of a wide age range. Their designs are interesting and eye-catching, and the added detail of personalization on all of their gift items ensures that children will go back to school with something different and customized to their personality and interests. The site is even offering a number of personalized sports bags, perfect for carrying equipment and needed items to each child's after school activities. Each sports bag is designed according to what the child's favorite after school activity is. For example, the website's Personalized Cheer Sports Bag is meant for girls interested in cheerleading. One customer raved about this product, saying that the bag's design was "very cute" and that the item was "great and came in a quick amount of time."

GiftsForYouNow.com prides itself on offering a wide range of designs for their gift items, and that is no different with their line of back to school products. Their aim is to put a smile on each child's face while preparing them for their first day of school. According to the site, they want to “make children stand out from their classmates with a special line of personalized gift items.” It’s even possible to purchase a number of their items as a set, because many of the designs cross over into several of their gifts.
