

Wholesale Hats Donates Hats For Winter To The Coachella Valley Rescue Mission

WholesaleHats.com has donated over $2000 worth of FLEXFIT™ beanie hats to the Coachella Valley Rescue Mission.

PALM DESERT, CA, USA, August 6, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ --

WholesaleHats.com has donated 100 FLEXFIT™ beanies to the Coachella Valley Rescue Mission. The retail value of the donation totaled more than $2000. The company donated hats for winter to help the Mission prepare for the inevitable return of winter and the cooler weather it brings. The FLEXFIT™ beanie hats donated are an extremely dense knit and hypoallergenic acrylic, making them a warm and easy fit.

"The Coachella Valley Rescue Mission does so much for our community -- we wanted to help them help others. There is a constant need for clothing and supplies for the CVRM's programs and this was a fitting way for our company to contribute," explained Brian Burr of WholesaleHats.com (<https://www.wholesalehats.com/>).

Even in the height of summer, the CVRM is planning ahead for winter. We feel fortunate to be able to help make a difference in the lives of those in our community.”

Coachella Valley Rescue Mission provides food, shelter and basic living supplies to homeless and needy men, women and children in the Valley. Last year, the CVRM provided 175,000 hot meals to individuals and families in the area. Ongoing programs and services include:

- 2 public meals every day
- Breakfast, lunch and dinner for those who are staying at the shelter

- Shelter for over 150 individuals
- Emergency shelter for 75 offered every night
- Assistance in finding local programs or services to help the homeless find jobs, receive counseling and attain self-sufficiency
- A faith-based philosophy that strives to meet the spiritual needs of shelter residents
- Women and children services and support, including accommodations dedicated to women and children or families.
- Refuge for needy and/or abused women and children

"Even in the height of summer, the CVRM is planning ahead for winter. We feel fortunate to be able to help make a difference in the lives of those in our community," said Burr.
