AUSTIN, TEXAS, USA, August 13, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bovada's answer to the ever-popular Rush Poker is Zone Poker. The lunch hour poker session can now include up to three times the hands that regular online poker could.

For US Players.

Designed to decrease the time it takes to wait for a new hand to be dealt after folding, Zone Poker will take a player straight from folding to a brand new hand, dealt at a new table, with new players. Shuffling players around at a high paced rate has become very popular, as it increases hands per hour, and thus, increases the rate of winnings and reward points per hour as well.

Zone Poker also features a FOLD NOW button and a CHECK/FOLD NOW button, both of which catapult players into a new table with a new hand of cards faster than ever. Ultimately, Bovada.lv players see more cards in a shorter amount of time in Zone Poker, transitioning players between tables at an incredibly fast rate.

One major question that arises is how Bovada Poker has worked out the issue of big blinds. Because players are shuffled around between tables, it may seem difficult to keep track of who is sitting in the blinds positions with each new hand dealt. Bovada Poker's Zone Poker software incorporates a formula that determines which player has not paid the big blind yet, whether it is a first-hand player or a player who has played numerous hands but has not yet been in the big blind position. Furthermore, if a player has not paid the big blind in the longest amount of time than anyone else at the table, then that player will automatically be seated in the big blind position. If numerous players qualify for the big blind role, one of them will be selected randomly to take the seat. Therefore, a player may pay more or less big blinds in the long run, than in a regular online poker session.

Players are given the same amount of time to act as they would have in a normal game; however, there is no waiting time between hands and no waiting for other players to carry out the hand after folding.

Everything else is the same as far as rules of the game go. Even graphics and animation are not sacrificed in Zone Poker. Fast-paced is the new trend in online poker, and Bovada Poker has the first US-friendly version in Zone Poker.

The Bovada brand provides players with a paramount hub for all things online betting from sportsbetting to poker to Las Vegas casino style games.
