

Demand for Painless Laser Tattoo Removal on the Rise, says Manassas Laser Skin Care Center

Once a permanent reminder of one's misguided youth, tattoos are now removed easily and quickly at laser skin care centers across the nation.

MANASSAS, VA, USA, August 15, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Manassas, VA. A few generations ago, tattoos were considered to be anything but main stream. Only those who lived on the fringe of society wore multiple tattoos publicly. People who wanted to get tattooed had to choose spots that could easily be covered or risk becoming unemployable. However, times have changed and tattoo shops are now found in many neighborhoods across the country. This extreme shift in perception and acceptance has given rise to a completely different problem. Tattoos have now become so accepted and easy to get that many people act without thinking things through, and wind up regretting their ink.

On popular reality shows like Tattoo Nightmares or Tattoo Rescue, skilled artists cover an old or unwanted tattoo with new artwork. But for those who are simply tired of having ink on their bodies, laser tattoo removal can be a better option. A few sessions at a day spa, like Manassas based Artisan Laser Skin Care Center can leave the skin looking pristine again.

When it was first introduced, laser tattoo removal in Manassas was only available at the doctor's office. However, now medical spas offer this service in a much more relaxed and welcoming atmosphere. A Manassas medical spa, like Artisan Laser Skin Care Center, attempts to offer patients the latest technology in a soothing, therapeutic environment. The technicians and estheticians working in these medispas are fully qualified and have proven they have the same skill level as technicians working in doctor's office. Fully licensed and insured, visiting a skin care center in Manassas is just as safe as a hospital or doctor's office.

In addition to laser tattoo removal, Manassas based Artisan Laser Skin Care Center also performs chemical peels, laser body hair removal for men and women, and facial injections. Visit them online at www.skincaremanassas.com
