

Flippers Pizzeria Welcomes Everyone 'Back to School' with a Special Value

As schools reopen their doors, the Florida pizzeria makes it easy for area educators to host great events for students and faculty.

ORLANDO, FL, USA, August 16, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Flippers Pizzeria, a proud "Partner in Education," welcomes students, teachers, and administrators throughout Florida back to classroom this August with special "PIE" prices on their fresh 14-inch and 16-inch pizzas.

As always, the Florida pizzeria makes it easy for area educators to host great events at their schools. According to Kelly Pfister, Marketing Director, Flippers' extensive menu of fresh pizzas, pastas, breadsticks, and sandwiches are ideal for feeding hungry students and administrators. "Thanks to available conveniences like delivery, setup, and various catering options, Flippers is a great choice for just about any school event, from faculty meetings and fundraisers, to athletic events," said Pfister.

To take advantage of special pricing, schools simply need to contact their closest Flippers Pizzeria location. "Representatives at any one of our Central Florida pizzeria locations will be happy to help to organize a menu and offer suggestions on portion sizing for any school event," said Pfister.

Pfister mentioned that the Orlando pizzeria, which now has restaurants at The Villages and in St. Petersburg, also features a special catering menu on the company's website as an option for larger events.

"Flippers has always been a strong supporter of area educators and students," said Ben Richardson, VP of Operations at Flippers Pizzeria. "We have hosted various fundraisers for schools and colleges and we've been large sponsors for many local athletic teams. Our Spirit Nights are always big successes at our restaurants as well, allowing us to give back a percentage of our sales back to the school. It brings us great pride to give something back to the
