SFG is a growing, thriving business and they needed a new home that would allow them to continue to offer their clients the type of exemplary service they have come to expect.”

Ali Setork,

SFG, who moved into the Mill Street Offices in March of 2013, specialize in customized financial solutions to meet the needs of both individuals and small business owners. Their new home is located at 1979 Mill Street, suite 205, and is perfectly situated to allow SFG to offer their services to the multitude of area businesses that call the greater Chicagoland area home.

"We understand that our properties are an extension of the companies that operate out of them, and we strive to ensure that the layout and design of each suite is particularly suited to the goals and expectations of the businesses that call our buildings home. Our full time management staff ensures that we maintain control over the design and construction of each facility throughout all phases of development, allowing us to offer our tenants a truly individualized Naperville office rental," Setork said.
