Compliance and Training.

Starting September 23, 2013 Business Associates must be in compliance with the new HIPAA Final Rule. This is the first time that Business Associates are directly liable for violations under HIPAA, with potentially millions of dollars in fines. Any business that supports healthcare providers, health plans, or healthcare clearinghouses needs to be aware of these changes. Examples of Business Associates include:

Data Hosting,
Claims processing or administration,
Data analysis, processing or administration,
Utilization review,
Quality assurance billing,
Benefit management,
Practice management,
Repricing,
Legal,
Actuarial,
Accounting,
Consulting,
Data aggregation,
Management,
Administrative,
Accreditation,
Financial,

HealthCare Too, a provider of medical-grade Cloud Hosting and HIPAA HITECH compliance consulting, has produced a FREE White Paper to help Business Associates better understand why

HIPAA HITECH regulations matter now. Titled "HIPAA and Business Associates: Tempest in a Teapot or Perfect Storm?", the White Paper offers analysis at varying degrees of detail on changes in the HIPAA HITECH regulations that now specifically concern Business Associates and their subcontractors.

The HealthCare Too white paper is structured to provide:

- *The Paragraph to those who want only the highest overview,
- *The Page for those who want more structure and analysis but limited details,
- *The Details for those who want complete analysis and references/citations,
- *The Summary of the seven major changes that will lead to a "perfect storm".

HealthCare Too makes this white paper freely available (no registration required) in order to create awareness of these major HIPAA HITECH compliance changes for Covered Entities and Business Associates. Download a PDF copy of the white paper from the Reference section of our website (<http://www.healthcaretoo.com>) or directly from www.healthcaretoo.com/hipaa-and-business-associates-tempest-in-a-teapot-or-perfect-storm.
