While “Phantom Gourmet” got to celebrate serving the appetites of local television viewers for a 20th consecutive year, Frederick's Pastries had the honor of serving Phantom Gourmet founders and friends at this special bash. The North Andover dessert bakery created a four-tiered birthday cake that utilized the recognizable logo of Phantom Gourmet. Purple velvet is this cake shop's specialty item, and it didn't disappoint in this gourmet cake when presented to the show's CEO, and vice president of business development and new media, the Andelman brothers.

The 20th birthday party was located at the pavilion tent of Granite Links Golf Club in Quincy, Mass. Three hundred fans were in attendance at the party which featured a band and barbeque in addition to the sweets provided by Frederick's Pastries. This gourmet bakery, providing specialty desserts in North Andover, MA, with a location also in Amherst, N. H., only deals in desserts, though they do offer a number of unique items on their menu.

Frederick's Pastries provides its patrons with a selection of pastries as is their namesake, cupcakes and cheesecakes. This family-owned and operated dessert bakery has been recognized by established organizations like The Knot, for titles such as “Best in Weddings” and “Best Wedding Cupcakes.” With such high praise, residents of North Andover will get exactly what they expect when experiencing the gourmet desserts of Frederick's Pastries. They make it easy to impress in any situation, and especially celebrations.

“We were happy to celebrate with Phantom Gourmet, the Andelman brothers and their fans. It was a day filled of fun,” said Susan Lozier Robert, Frederick's Pastries proprietor. “We take pride when our cakes are a part of a special occasion, and this was a huge milestone for one of my favorite TV shows.”
