For the past three years, Parenting New Hampshire has been recognizing local businesses through the Family Favorite awards. Readers of the magazine are able to vote for establishments that promote family-friendly services and practices in a number of categories, including Out & About, Shopping, Activities & Learning, Baby Stuff, Birthday Fun, Restaurants, and more.

For the second year in a row, Frederick's Pastries, a dessert bakery in Amherst, has been named by its patrons as the “Family Favorite” in the Favorite Bakery category.

Frederick's Pastries is a gourmet cake shop that has been serving the Amherst community for 12 years. Specializing in only desserts, this family-owned and operated establishment continues to display their homegrown values in their Amherst and Bedford, N.H. shops, as well as the North Andover, Mass. location.

A wide assortment of cakes, cupcakes, cheesecakes and pastries in varying flavors and designs are constantly on display at Frederick's Pastries. This gourmet bakery in Amherst has a selection of desserts that will satisfy any sweet tooth in the family.

With other acknowledgements, including the “Best Wedding Cupcakes” award from the Knot and “Best of Bride” honor from New Hampshire Bride Magazine, Amherst dessert bakery Frederick's Pastries is no stranger to praise.

“We are honored to be awarded by the readers of Parenting Magazine and the families in our community for being recognized as their Family Favorite,” said proprietor of Frederick's Pastries Susan Lozier Robert. She continued, “Birthdays and celebration are an exciting time for families and it brings us great joy to know that our cakes and pastries are often the centerpiece for these family memories.”

Frederick’s Pastries is well-known for their custom celebration cakes. From birthdays, to anniversaries, and even graduations, the staff works with customers on a daily basis to design and create cakes for any occasion. They even offer special options like gluten-less and kosher desserts. There are bakery locations in Amherst and Bedford, N.H., and North Andover, Mass.
