

Bitcoin Services New Online Currency Can Be Purchased With Paypal, Credit Cards And Cash Instantly

NEW YORK, NY, USA, August 26, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bitcoin is the world's first completely decentralized currency. This means it has no issuing entity therefore, no single point of failure. In many ways Bitcoin is more secure than a bank. If the banks were to fail, the money could be gone forever.

Bitcoin taking over the online banking community. No more outrageous Paypal and credit merchant processing fees!”

Bitcoin

Bitcoin Services is a new online currency. The public can buy Bitcoins with Paypal, credit cards, or cash instantly! Please check out this website for more information www.bitcoinsservices.com. It's the state-of-the-art in money. It's a new form of electronic money. It's already become "the gold standard" of digital currency.

Based on some old technologies and some new technologies, Bitcoin is the result of combining the very state of the art in cryptographic security + the idea of a limited quantity commodity similar to gold and silver (where there's only so much of it) and using it as money + the idea of massive numbers of computers connected by the internet. This forms a strong, resilient, indestructible peer-to-peer network. It's called a cryptocurrency.
