PHOENIX, AZ, USA, August 29, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- One of Nevada's most prominent bankruptcy law firms announces their new opening in Phoenix, Arizona as of March 2013. Owner, Seth Ballstaedt, says, "We have a system that works, and it has worked for thousands of those struggling with debt. Many of us are native to the Phoenix area and if we can provide the same dedicated, low price service – It's a win for our clients, a win for us, and major loss for the creditors."

The Ballstaedt Law Firm opened their doors in Las Vegas, Nevada in early 2011. What started with an office of three has grown to a team of more than twenty, including several full service bankruptcy attorneys. With thousands of successful bankruptcy discharges within the last two years alone, the team is ready to expand and Arizona is next.

It's a win for our clients, a win for us, and major loss for the creditors.”
