

AAA Appliance Service Center Announces New Referral Rewards Program For Appliance Repair In Chicago

New program from experts in appliance repair in Chicago will allow clients to earn gift cards and service discounts.

CHICAGO, IL, USA, September 5, 2013

/EINPresswire.com/ -- AAA Appliance Service Center is excited to announce the creation of their new customer referral rewards program for clients of their highly regarded technician services and appliance repair in Chicago. Clients who refer a new customer to AAAASC will receive a $5 Starbucks Gift Card and a 10% discount off future services.

"Over the years we've found that clients frequently refer family, friends and businesses to us following their own service. This new program offers us the opportunity to thank our valued customers for their continued support and glowing reviews," said Catie Bloom, Director of Operations for AAA Appliance Service Center (www.aaaasc.com).

We designed the referral system to be simple to enroll in, and mutually beneficial for both our current clients and the customers they refer.”

In addition to the benefits of referring new clients, the referred customer will also receive a 5% discount off their service, and there are no limits on the number of gift cards that can be earned.

To qualify for the program, clients simply fill out a form located on the AAA website at <http://www.aaaasc.com/referral/>. Their referral must then simply mention the referrer's full name to the certified AAA technician when they receive service. The referral's service will instantly be discounted 5%, and the $5 gift card will be sent to the referrer in the mail. When scheduling future services, referrers need only mention their participation in the rewards program to receive their 10% discount.

"We designed the referral system to be simple to enroll in, and mutually beneficial for both our current clients and the customers they refer. We hope that this rewards program will help us show new customers exactly why our clients are so eager to recommend us," Bloom said.
