

Lincoln Crowne & Company Resigns Sponsorship with Australian 12 Foot Skiff Champions

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, September 10, 2013

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Boutique Mergers & Acquisitions Firm Lincoln Crowne & Company has resigned a sponsorship arrangement with the Australian Champion 12 Foot Skiff team for the 2013 / 2014 Australian sailing season

Boutique Mergers & Acquisitions Firm Lincoln Crowne & Company today announced that it had extended its sporting sponsorship arrangement with the Australian Champion 12 Foot Skiff team of Jonathan Temple and Richard Jones for the 2013 / 2014 sailing season.

Across the 2012 / 2013 Season the Lincoln Crowne skiff under the crew of Temple & Jones displayed consistent outstanding form.

In addition to winning the 2013 Australian Championship, the Lincoln Crowne Skiff won the Port Jackson Championship, the East Coast Championship, the Parramatta River Championship and the Brisbane Waters Championship.

"Lincoln Crowne has had great pleasure in supporting the 12 Foot Skiffs for many years now, and of course it is brilliant to be associated with the Australian Championship winning crew in such a competitive class of sailing," Nicholas Assef, Lincoln Crowne & Company's Executive Director commented.

"I know that Jonathan & Richard have worked hard in the off season reviewing areas of the boat that can still be improved, and we wish them every success for the coming season," Nicholas Assef concluded.

Lincoln Crowne's dedicated sailing website Lincoln Crowne Sponsored Sailing, will carry updates throughout the 2013 / 2014 season of the LCC Skiff's successes, and additionally the 12 Foot Skiff Class website of www.skiff.org.au will carry all general information on class activities.
