

BeautedeParis.com Spots Bushy Brows Runway Trend in Fall 2013 Fashion Shows

Brow Relongé Eyebrow Conditioner by BeautedeParis.com is designed to promote the appearance of fuller and thicker eyebrows.

NEW YORK, NY, USA, September 11, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Beauty giant BeautedeParis.com has been tracking Fashion Week 2013 and reports that big Bushy Brows are very much on trend. For years makeup stylists plucked and tweezed brows into slim arches, but the fashion has now reversed with bushy eyebrows getting fuller and thicker each year. Unfortunately, overplucking brows can cause lasting brow baldness in some cases. Experts report that thin or sparse eyebrows can be the result of over-tweezing from a young age, a medical condition, or even hereditary.

BeautedeParis.com can offer help for these sparse brows with its ingredient tested Brow Conditioner formula, Brow Relongé. Formulated with natural ingredients researched and intended to encourage and support healthy natural brow hair growth for the appearance of fuller, thicker eyebrows. Proven ingredients work synergistically to nourish and provide moisture, maximizing the brow's beauty potential. Brow Relongé uses tested and time proven ingredients like Hyaluronic Acid and Biotin, known as the "hair growth vitamin". Brow Relongé eyebrow serum is formulated to be non-irritating and safe for all skin types when used as directed.

BeautedeParis.com offers these tips to its beauty customers who look to model the Bushy Brow runway look:

- Exfoliate with a baby or soft toothbrush to help exfoliate the area and stimulate growth
- Ease up on the tweezing, threading and waxing to achieve face-framing bold brows
- Grow out your brows in rows. Allow hairs closest to the existing thin brow to grow in. Only tweeze those that are not in that row. As the closer ones grow in, you can begin to grow in the next row, until brows sport a fuller look.
- Use a brow razor to shave the areas you are looking for growth to occur. This is thought to help spark growth and encourage faster results.
- Use a brow serum nightly to give your natural hair growth a boost. Eyebrow serums and conditioners are powered with enhancing ingredients which encourage growth at the follicle level, maximizing brow beauty potential.
