

Lima Company Expands Refrigeration Service Division in Pennsylvania, NJ, Delaware and Maryland

Lima Company welcomes Martin Luckcuck, Tom O'Donald and 10 of the finest refrigeration technicians in the industry.

PHILADELPHIA, PA, USA, September 12, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lima Company's expansion of their refrigeration division will add to the strength of their fully-integrated business solutions model. Lima Company is fully focused on providing excellent client service, innovative solutions, and elevating the standard of excellence for building conservation services.

Bob Adams, VP of Sales and Marketing explains, "When it comes to refrigeration, we are protecting the integrity of client's products. Keeping foods and liquids at proper temperature is one of the top commandments to storing food, as it keeps the bacteria from gaining a foothold. Protecting the health of the nation is serious business."

Lima Company has committed all necessary resources to serve clients with all their refrigeration needs, including the addition of 10 fully stocked refrigeration service vehicles, state of the art dispatch center and GPS tracking systems for all vehicles. Other refrigeration services include:

- Commercial Walk-in cooler and Walk-in freezer box repair & maintenance, including system efficiency reviews
- R22 Asset Phase Out Strategies
- Energy Management System (EMS) design and maintenance
- Ice machine repair & maintenance

- Warranty repair service on most commercial refrigeration equipment and brands

“As with any business, you are only as good as the team you surround yourself with!” said Bob Lima, President, “that is why we are proud to introduce and welcome Martin Luckcuck, Tom O’Donald and the refrigeration technicians to our team.”

The Climate Control Division is being led by Martin Luckcuck, who will operate as Manager for the Division that includes Heating, Air Conditioning and Refrigeration. Martin comes to Lima Company with a high level of expertise and schooling in the HVAC/R arena. A graduate of the Linn State Technical College, with additional education at Lindsay-Cooper School of HVAC & Refrigeration Service, Martin has over 30 years of experience in the HVAC/R business, including 21 years of concentration in the supermarket business, as well Energy Management Systems and Monitoring. Martin has given back to his profession through his service with Hennepin (MN) Technical College Curriculum Development Board and Hussmann/Thermo-King Training Curriculum Development Group. He is a member of ASHRAE and a member of AEE (Association of Energy Engineers). Martin is also OSHA 30-Hour certified. In his spare time, Martin loves riding his motor cycles and spending quality time with his wife.

Leading the refrigeration team in the field is Tom O’Donald. Tom will operate as the Field Supervisor for Refrigeration, which includes 10 of the finest refrigeration technicians in the industry. Together, they have over 150 years of experience and knowledge and most of the team has worked together for over 9 years. Tom comes to Lima Company with an impressive career. Tom started his apprentice program with Acme Markets over 30 years ago. With a passion for supermarkets, he has focused his career on becoming an expert installing and servicing all types of supermarket refrigeration and climate control systems. Tom keeps sharpening his saw by attending educational seminars such as Copeland (a division of Emerson) Compressor Operations and Service, which is considered to be the best field training in the industry. In his spare time, Tom enjoys fishing, boating and spending quality time with his family at the beach.
