

The Conference Group Launches an Improved & Responsive Conference Call Management Tool

Video, web and audio conferencing company introduces a new way to control live conferences from anywhere, on any device with advanced features.

NEWARK, DELAWARE, USA, September 12, 2013

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Conference Group, a leader in audio, video and web conferencing has announced a new version of its Audio Console. The tool is available with the company's Reservationless Audio Conferencing Service and enables users to control and view their audio conferences while in progress from anywhere.

The new advanced features on the Audio Console include instant Dial Out, the ability to call attendees from a saved or imported list of contacts, "Sticky" Notes, a convenient place to document reminders or notes prior to or during a call, Enhanced Recording with the ability to "pause" a recording in progress, and Playback, enables users to easily incorporate previously recorded audio into a live conference.

The Audio Console is tablet and smartphone ready, making it convenient for conducting business on-the-go.”

said Karen Ruff, Social Media Coordinator for the Conference Group. "It's also available 24/7 and compatible with all major browsers, so it can be used on our audio conferencing services whenever and wherever it's needed."

The new Audio Console is free and accessible through any web browser. The intuitive and responsive design delivers a seamless experience on any desktop, tablet or smartphone device. Users launch the Audio Console via the Customer Dashboard on the Conference Group website (www.ConferenceGroup.com). Not just for conference call leaders, anyone with the proper permissions may use the Audio Console. Making it easy to better manage the participant's experience, delegate tasks and conduct productive meetings.

An easy-to-use Audio Console User Guide provides a quick and efficient list of all features and controls.
