When asked about doing another hash making contest after the 710 Cup and High Times Cannabis Cup just passed, host of the event Thurlow Weed said, "The dawn of recreational cannabis is upon us, we wanted to host an event like no other, and make it affordable for people to compete, as well as come check things out. This is also an event we plan to take around to other states throughout the year. I like the sound of the Washington X Cup in February.”
