We have always believed that the attorneys here at Peck Bloom are truly some of the best in the business, and this Leading Lawyers ranking seems to echo that belief.”

The lawyers appearing on the list were selected based upon surveys conducted by Leading Lawyers which canvassed thousands of lawyers in Illinois, asking them who they believed to be the best attorneys in the state.

"Ken and I are honored to be named among such a respected and accomplished group of law professionals, particularly because the selection process involves our fellow litigators. We work hard to ensure that our clients are pleased with our representation, but it's especially gratifying to see our peers take notice of our accomplishments as well," said Kerry Peck, Managing Partner of Peck Bloom, LLC (www.peckbloom.com).

Leading Lawyers Magazine, and their online counterpart at www.LeadingLawyers.com, uses these peer recommendation surveys to maintain a list of the most highly regarded attorneys in a given state. Unlike many other lawyer directories, lawyers cannot buy their way onto the Leading Lawyers list, but instead must be highly regarded among other law professionals to be considered for inclusion.

Kerry Peck, an expert in all facets of Chicago elder law with more than 30 years of experience, is the former President of the 22,000-member Chicago Bar Association. Peck's clients include Chicago area families, hospitals, and banks, as well as The State of Illinois, County of Cook and City of Chicago itself, and he has been named a Super Lawyer by Chicago Magazine six years running.

Kenneth Bloom, an estate planning lawyer in Chicago, and founding member of Peck Bloom, practices in the areas of estate planning, wills, trusts, probate, asset protection, real estate, corporate and business transactional law. He is a past chair of the Asset Protection Committee of the Chicago Bar Association and continues to serve on their Internal Finance Committee.

"We have always believed that the attorneys here at Peck Bloom are truly some of the best in the business, and this Leading Lawyers ranking seems to echo that belief," Peck commented.
