

Receive PPP infrastructure updates at SMI's 12th annual Benelux Infrastructure Forum

The conference will provide an ideal platform for key professionals from the PPP, infrastructure and maintenance sectors to discuss recent regional developments

LONDON, ENGLAND, UNITED KINGDOM, September 23, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With less financing from the private sector, infrastructure projects are relying on different sources of investment from public financing, pension funds and international investors. PPP needs to attract money from alternative sources and may turn to international investors. With the infrastructure sector developing in and around the Benelux region, find out what challenges were faced, how these were overcome and the future outlook of the infrastructure market.

Against this backdrop, SMI's 12th annual Benelux Infrastructure Forum will provide a comprehensive update on the latest PPP, maintenance and infrastructure developments in the Benelux region, with key case studies and expert insight shared on how this will affect your organisation. The two-day forum will enable your business to learn and network from the most senior level delegates across all aspects of the infrastructure community. This year's programme builds on the success of the 2012 event with key professionals in the PPP, maintenance and infrastructure sectors being brought together to discuss the latest issues and trends affecting the region.

Key highlights include:

- Leading PPP case-studies from the Benelux region
- Insight on institutional financing and recent developments
- Key presentation delivered by the European Road Federation (ERF)
- Learning more about contractual and legal developments across the region
- Understanding recent funding issues closely linked to PPP
