

Sacred Sleep Launches Organic Cotton Bedding, Fair Trade Alpaca Collections

SALIDA, CO, USA, September 23, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- (NewMediaWire) -- Sacred Sleep, a company dedicated to helping people rest and renew, announces its new organic cotton bedding and fair trade alpaca collections. The company's products enable people to turn their bedrooms into Sleep Sanctuaries, ideal sleep environments that create a sense of calm. The new duvet covers, comforters and throws complement Sacred Sleep's existing line of eucalyptus blend sheets and mattress covers. "It is always our intention to expand the line with products that bring comfort. Our conscious luxuries allow the world to be in their sleep environments and to begin the process of slowing down and preparing for good rest. These new products will do just that," said co-founder and CEO Jane Pinto.

Colors are soothing and coordinate with the trim of the existing line of Sacred Sleep eucalyptus blend bedding. Consistent with the company's high standards of sustainability for all its products, the new organic cotton bedding is produced by a GOTS-certified facility and the alpaca throw is a Fair Trade product of Peru. The Global Organic Textile Standard (GOTS) is the worldwide leading textile processing standard for organic fibers, including ecological and social criteria, backed up by independent certification of the entire textile supply chain.

The new line includes the following luxury bedding:

The Stella Organic Cotton Quilted Comforter is a soft, cozy, luxurious light-to medium warmth comforter filled with organic cotton batting that features beautiful textured detailing and a rich charcoal color. The comforter comes in two sizes; queens are priced at $300 and kings are $350.

Duvet sets. Sacred Sleep duvet sets provide a timeless elegance of design in classic colors that never go out of style. Incredibly soft against the skin, the duvets are 100 percent organic cotton.

The Venus Organic Cotton Ruffled Duvet Set. A contemporary twist on classic ruffles, this sophisticated, luxurious organic cotton duvet set with button closures includes a duvet cover, two standard pillow shams and two Euro shams. The buttons are hidden in a double channel inset an inch from the bottom, creating a streamlined piece that prevents the insert from falling out. Color options include antique white and champagne. Queen sets are $650 and king sets are $750.

The Luna Organic Cotton Tie-Closure Duvet Set. Modern femininity and sustainability tie together beautifully in this pure organic cotton duvet set featuring a smooth look and feel with tie closures. The set includes a duvet cover, two standard pillow shams and two Euro shams. The Luna Duvet Set is available in solid slate grey and solid eggshell white. Queen sets are $350 and king sets are $400.

The Fair Trade Alpaca Throw is made in Peru from dedicated pure baby alpaca wool and is luxuriously soft with diamond and herringbone patterning and a fringe trim. This beautiful throw is available for $90 in two color options, redwood/vanilla and seaglass/pearl. The artisan-producers of the throw are part of a collective that has a 25-year history with a staunch commitment to fair trade and the environment.
