Skyline Exhibitor Source's Nashville trade show exhibits are designed to meet any need and fit any budget. The company manufactures 16 different systems in-house; most of which are designed to integrate with one another. The modular nature of Skyline's exhibits makes them some of the most versatile exhibiting systems available and allows Skyline customers to create a truly unique exhibit or to rearrange display components to fit different exhibition hall footprints. The company offers a wide variety of products including: full walk through exhibits, island exhibits, panel systems, tabletop displays and portable displays in Knoxville, among others.

"At Skyline we have very high standards for quality in all areas of the company from sales and marketing right down through to the construction of the exhibits and we work closely with our customers throughout the entire process. Those are just a few reasons why we are so selective about the hires we make and why Mike will fit right in. His reputation for excellence has been proven true by the many awards and recognitions TradeTec received under his guidance. We're looking forward to Mike's contributions here," explained Hamari.

Skyline Exhibitor Source is part of the Skyline global network consisting of nearly 100 design centers in North America and more than 1,500 team members worldwide.
