

Silver Ridge Assisted Living Announces Acceptance of Long-term Insurance and VA Benefits

COLLEYVILLE, TX, USA, October 11, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Silver Ridge Assisted Living in Colleyville, Texas, recently announced it will accept long-term insurance and VA benefits for those interested in moving into the eldercare facility.

Silver Ridge Assisted Living in Colleyville, Texas, provides assisted living in Colleyville, TX. The facility is widely known for its homey atmosphere and personalized attention to residents. The Colleyville senior care facility abides by its slogan: Continuous Compassionate Care.

"We chose to make Silver Ridge Assisted Living as different from the corporate assisted-living model as possible, ensuring a personal and home-like environment that offers excellent facilities and superb care. We would choose this facility for our own elderly relatives who require assistance with daily living," says John Klein, a facility spokesperson.

Silver Ridge Assisted Living is much more than a bland residence hall. The director of residential care at the facility is a licensed vocational nurse. In addition, trained and experienced staff provide daily exercise and recreation. Services at the facility include all aspects of personal care, such as laundry and housekeeping, and the preparation of three meals a day. Residents can enjoy free cable television and internet access. In addition, there is a concierge available for helping residents with medical appointments and other services as needed.

The facility's focus is guided by consideration and kindness. Silver Ridge Assisted Living senior citizens receive essential health and personal care services 24/7. Additionally, the facility provides interesting programs and individual or group opportunities for a variety of stimulating activities.

In times that call for the necessity of end-of-life-care services, Silver Ridge provides hospice care. A hospice nurse is regularly scheduled to visit the person in need and the facility's staff work together with the nurse to ensure the process is seamless and comfortable for him or her.

The facility has been designed to implement, anticipate and fulfill all and any needs of its residents. Family members or friends who want more information should call (817) 631-9887. Silver Ridge Assisted Living serves communities in Colleyville, Southlake, Grapevine, Keller, Hurst, Euless, Bedford, Flower Mound, Watauga, North Richland Hills, Irving, and Arlington, Texas.
