

Online Tutor of Mathematics

Willing to help students of high schools and colleges

ELBASAN, ALBANIA, ALBANIA, October 18, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- I have a more than 20 yrs experience teaching mathematics in High schools and University. Several times I have taught in summer universities organized by the University of Miskolc, Hungary. Also, I have given lectures in the University of Debrecen, Hungary, as part of my doctoral studies. These opportunities have very much helped me to exchange thoughts and opinions with colleagues from other countries and get experience from other educational sources.

My relevant skills:

- Teach Probability and Statistics
- Teach Graph Theory
- Teach Linear Programming and Financial Math.
- Use computer programs for teaching mathematics like: GeoGebra
- Teach Geometry

My most recent education:

Doctorant of Philosophy-2010, University of Debrecen, Hungary

Thesis: GeoGebra in Teaching and Learning Mathematics in Albanian Secondary Schools and Universities

Research Work for MSc (Years: 2004 – 2006):

Finding a model of good fit regarding the relation between the added weights of crossed lambs and the number of the days after their birth.

Computer programs: European Computer Algebra Driving License and GeoGebra, Desmos Calculator.

My main interests in the subjects is to use technology in the learning and teaching process, use recent and popular computer programs like GeoGebra, Microsoft Mathematics, Desmos Creator and others as well. I welcome students who are in need of the above subjects to tutor them within the mutual agreement for the payment and the tutorship time. Online opportunities are very favorable for us to work from home and provide flexibility irrespective of the location we are at the moment or of the time we are available as a tutor.

The first strong impact on my multicultural character, attitude and communication is got by being an active member of Amnesty International and becoming a Christian starting in year 1991, very committed member of Gideon International and of Full Gospel Business Men Fellowship and others.
