Fitness Trainer & Entrepreneur Luke Seier says when he was developing his brand there was nothing like the services offered by Fatty Girl Wraps – which would have saved him months of research.

“When I first launched my brand there was no one willing to help me within my field because I was considered the competition, as a result it took me forever to launch. This new concept of placing the packaging, marketing, and body wrap fulfillment under one roof was something long overdue, and needed.”

Fatty Girl Wraps even offers a Concierge Service where they design and apply the labels on the product for their clients. Luke Seier went on to say that the “only challenge at that point is to offer your clients a selection of body wraps from your own product line, it’s really that easy.”

Fatty Girl Wraps is also proud to announce the release of Contour Me Body Wraps (ContourMeBodyWraps.com) another private label brand developed 100% in house. Contour Me Body Wraps was designed and launched by Fatty Girl Wraps for one of their Private Label Clients. Since its launch the brand has experienced an increase in sales each week with the help of Fatty Girl Marketing. Everything from the website site, product packaging, and product content was developed for the client by Fatty Girl Body Wrap Brand Development Team.
