AFC Conference: In the first 7 weeks of action there has been a few pleasant surprises as well as teams off to positive starts as expected. Peyton Manning and the Broncos come in as the most explosive offensive attack in football. The team is averaging an impressive 42.6 points per game, and Manning is on pace to throw for over 50 TD's on the season. The Chiefs are one of the surprise teams thus far, and the only remaining undefeated squad at 7-0, while the Bengals, Patriots and Colts enter week eight with records of 5-2.

The defending champion Ravens are off to a disappointing 3-4 start, and coming off a 17-16 loss to the Steelers, while Pittsburgh is currently on a 2 game winning streak, and will be looking to inch closer to 500 when they take on the Raiders in Oakland.

NFC Conference: Head Coach Pete Carroll has done a tremendous job rebuilding the Seahawks and Seattle comes in to their matchup with the Rams on Monday night on top of the NFC west division at 6-1. Drew Brees is putting together another pro bowl caliber season with 14 TD passes in 7 games, and leads the Saints in to their matchup with the Bills at 5-1. The 49ers are 5-2 and in second place in the west, while the Cowboys and Packers are in first place in the NFC north and NFC east.
