

In-Pulse CPR is Now Offering Public CPR Training Classes in Clermont Florida

In-Pulse CPR, an American Heart training center, is now providing public CPR training classes to the Clermont / Lake County area.

CLERMONT, FLORIDA, USA, October 28, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In-Pulse CPR is excited to announce the start of CPR training classes within Clermont, Florida area in Lake County. Classes are offered to the general public as well as private group classes for businesses.

American Heart CPR

Certifications include Heart Saver CPR/AED. This class is most often taken by day care providers, teachers, personal or fitness trainers, church employees, and blue collar workers.

Their most commonly requested certification, says spokesman for the company, is the BLS for the Healthcare Professional. This certification is most often taken by those entering a health care field or currently working in it such as nurses and dental workers.

Both the Heart Saver CPR/AED and the BLS for the Healthcare Provider certification can be completed in a single four hour class. All classes include adult, infant and child CPR, AED training, and severe choking emergencies. Additional certifications available include Basic First Aid and OSHA required Bloodborne Pathogens.

Students successfully completing a course receive a two-year certification from the American Heart Association. The fee for each course varies. Registration can be completed online by visiting the company's web site www.inpulsecpr.com or by contacting them via phone at (877) 226-7311.
