

MyWalkGear.Com Gears Up For Alzheimer's Awareness Month

Awareness Apparel Retailer Carries Brand New, Creative Designs for Alzheimer's Awareness Month

BURR RIDGE, IL, USA, October 28, 2013

/EINPresswire.com/ -- This November, thousands of people nationwide will be participating in walks and fundraising events in order to raise awareness for the disease that is the sixth leading cause of death in the U.S: Alzheimer's disease. In honor of this very important month, awareness apparel retailer MyWalkGear.com will be showcasing a new line of Alzheimer's awareness t-shirts, sweatshirts, and other gifts and keepsakes all meant to spread the word about the devastating effects of this disease.

The site is aware that many people choose to walk as part of a team and might want matching shirts to show their support for the cause, so they have put many of their Alzheimer's awareness items on sale for the month of November in order to help each team get shirts at a cost-effective price. One of their most popular designs is an Alzheimer's t-shirt that can be personalized with either the walker's name or the name of the loved one they are walking for. Customers like this design because it's simple, modern, and can be worn at a number of events. One shopper raved, "I love it! I've never seen a shirt that brought awareness to this cause. I bought them for my kids to wear and show support to my Mom who suffers from this disease."

MyWalkGear.com aims to be different by offering awareness apparel for a number of causes, and they're constantly bringing in more designs so that walkers can show their support in a unique way. One of their newer Alzheimer shirt designs, their Tackle Alzheimer's T-shirt, has also become quite popular. By offering a variety of different apparel designs for just about any cause people walk for, they're quickly becoming a go-to site for awareness gear.

Another priority of MyWalkGear is to make sure to donate a portion of all proceeds they get from their profits to a number of charities of their customers' choosing. They donate to research and awareness organizations such as the Alzheimer's Association, Susan G. Komen for the Cure, and the MS Society. They want to help their customers participate in both spreading awareness and providing resources to finding a cure for diseases like Alzheimer's.

Special deals and sale opportunities will be running on MyWalkGear's Alzheimer's awareness items all month long in November. More information about their merchandise can be found on their website.
