These stuffed animals can be used for anything from holiday gifts for family and friends to holiday décor pieces for a home or office. Many of these pieces come with an embroidered Santa hat or scarf in order to ensure that these stuffed animals are completely unique and personalized for the recipient. Instead of only offering stuffed animals, they offer personalized and embroidered details that will make each plush toy unique for the child or person who receives it.

The holiday line offers a number of designs and animals to choose from. Selection includes a stuffed version of popular dog Boo with a Santa hat, a stuffed penguin with an embroidered Christmas scarf, a holiday Elmo, a stuffed holiday mouse, and Sherman, the site's main teddy bear. Shoppers can find a stuffed animal and holiday design that best suits their loved ones' tastes and interests. Each special holiday plush animal design and personalized teddy bear for Christmas comes with either an embroidered Santa hat, and embroidered scarf, or a t-shirt with a special holiday design on it.

800Bear.com is offering another incentive for holiday shoppers: great and reduced prices on their Christmas merchandise! Shoppers can get the majority of these stuffed animals at a reduced price throughout the month of November. Many of the site's personalized holiday stuffed animals are being offered for only $29.98 right now.

The online retailer has really gone above and beyond to offer brand new line of holiday plush animals this year in order to fulfill their overall mission: "To bring a smile to the faces of our customers' friends and loved ones." By offering a number of options for personalizing each teddy bear in a unique and holiday-specific way, the site's selection of personalized holiday plush animals stands out from other stuffed animal retailers.
