Members of the Hungry Howie's Pizza development team will be there to answer questions and interview prospective franchisees. New York and New Jersey are now open for development because a franchisee signed a multi-unit agreement that brings Hungry Howie's Pizza to The Bronx, New York.

"Anyone interested in learning more about being a pioneer of the brand should plan on attending," said Jennifer M. Jackson, development director for Hungry Howie's Pizza. "This is an opportunity for anyone who's ever dreamed of opening their own pizza business. There are territories available in New York and New Jersey for people interested in investing in single and multi-unit operations."

As one of the largest pizza franchises in the U.S., Hungry Howie's Pizza has 600 locations and is still growing. There are franchising opportunities available in several markets.
