CHARLOTTE, NC, UNITED STATES, November 5, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Talent Bridge, a leading Human Capital Solutions Company in Charlotte, was recently named as an honoree by the Charlotte Business Journal for the 2013 Best Places to Work Awards.

Businesses qualified for the 2013 Best Places to Work based on a formula whose benefits, policies and practices are among the area's best. The rankings of the 2013 honorees will be revealed during the luncheon and will be listed in the CBJ special report on November 22.

Talent Bridge was nominated from the entire Charlotte region, which consists of over 15 counties in North and South Carolina, according to the Charlotte Business Journal.

The luncheon for the honorees is scheduled to be held on November 15 at the Charlotte Convention Center within the Nascar Hall of Fame.

"We have a team of dedicated employees that make Talent Bridge a success everyday through superior customer service, great core values, and most importantly, outstanding teamwork", said Brad Violette, Managing Partner of Talent Bridge.
