

What You REALLY Need to Know about the Cadillac Elmiraj!

Here is what you really need to know about the Cadillac Elmiraj Orlando residents...

ORLANDO, FL, USA, November 5, 2013

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Cadillac has taken another step in the direction of innovative vehicles that break all boundaries of luxury and technology.

According to Central Florida Cadillac, they have introduced a brand new flagship vehicle, the Elmiraj, which features a design similar to the grand coupe. This vehicle exudes the modern, mid-century feel that Cadillac has begun to embrace.

This recent addition to the Cadillac family has drawn its design inspiration from the 1967 Cadillac Eldorado, which has led to the speculation that General Motors may be planning to introduce this vehicle at a price over the current top spot holder, the Cadillac XTS Sedan.

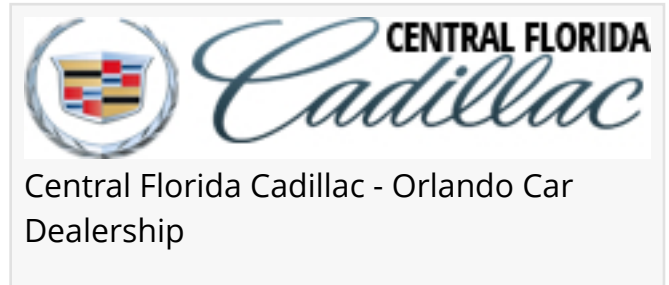

The newly revealed Elmiraj has given a new look to the well-known Cadillac badge and has shed the wreath that has always encased the multicolored emblem. According to company representatives this offers an interesting opportunity to see what consumers think of the newly refreshed badge.

With the specs of the vehicle, it makes it one of the most powerful vehicles that are offered by General Motors. The official engine and power specs include:

- ~250 inches in length;
- ~4.5 twin turbocharged engine featuring eight cylinders;
- ~500 horsepower.

However a new badge and powerful engine are not the only changes that are being introduced by the Elmiraj. According to the company, chrome is "so yesterday," which is why the traditional chrome accents that are usually seen on Cadillac luxury vehicles have been replaced. This vehicle will feature wheels of polished aluminum.

There are three goals that Cadillac is trying to emulate with the design of the Elmiraj vehicle, which include offering:

~Sheer beauty;
~Sheer elegance;
~Sheer presence.

The Elmiraj offers a more practical and logical option, than the Ciel four door convertible that was presented in Pebble Beach by Cadillac a few years ago. This vehicle is an option that will likely be seen in many garages across Orlando in the near future.
