

New American Funding Appoints Dana Allen to Branch Manager Allen, TX

ALLEN, TX, USA, November 11, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New American Funding, a national mortgage lender, has appointed Dana Allen to the position of Branch Manager in Allen, TX. Dana will be utilizing his extensive mortgage industry background to help New American Funding maintain unparalleled service.

With more than 11 years of experience in the mortgage banking industry and 9 years in management, Dana Allen has superior experience in mortgage branch starts. He specializes in first time homebuyers, non-conforming jumbo loans, VA, FHA, and Conventional loans. Although he offers concierge service to all clients, he is passionate about his first time homebuyer customers and assisting them in achieving the American Dream. Throughout his involvement in the industry he has successfully managed the closings of over $1.2B in loan volume.

Attracted by its positive leadership direction, the ability to provide concierge service to clients, and products available, Dana joined the New American Funding Team with the task of building a team to match his reputation of excellent customer service, efficiency, and on time closings.

"Being a direct lender, with niche' products, my team will be able to provide financing options that very few lenders do. This will help our commitment to assisting new home buyers and refinancing borrowers that have not been able to lower their interest rates," says Allen.

Dana has been voted Best Mortgage Professional by Dallas Magazine in 2011 and in 2013. He was also voted 5 Star Mortgage Professional by Texas Monthly Magazine in 2012 and 2013.

"I am excited to see the expansion of such a strong company in the Dallas market. This presents opportunity for our mortgage professionals as well as our clients." Dana Allen

In addition to Dana's enthusiasm about New American Funding, his goal is to expand multiple locations in the DFW market as well as provide high level services to clients and referral partners. Using the 14 day close guarantee and expanded product line, Dana is confident about strong growth in the Dallas market.
