

South Florida Casa Costa Condos Boasts Marina Access, Private Beach Resort, No HOA Fees For 2 Years

Palm Beach area REALTOR® Debbie Elbaum says buyer incentives for the Casa Costa condos development in Boynton Beach, Florida includes no HOA fees for two years.

BOYNTON BEACH, FLA., USA, November 12, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Local REALTOR® Debbie Elbaum is announcing attractive buyer incentives for the Casa Costa condo development in Boynton Beach, Florida, including no HOA fees for two years.

Elbaum, who specializes in real estate in the Palm Beaches including surrounding areas such as Boynton Beach, where Casa Costa is located, says that buyer incentives have never been more attractive.

"In a market with rising home prices once again, it's important for buyers to get in early and lock in their Casa Costa buyer incentives fast, because they won't last forever," she says. The units in both buildings are selling fast which is another good reason to get in now... while there are still many choice floor plans available.

According to Elbaum, not only are builder incentives substantial, but her company, GoCondoz-GoHomz Realty has additional incentives which no one else is offering. Her company is a leading specialist in Casa Costa condos, and these extra incentives are another good reason why buyers prefer working with her.

She says luxury waterfront condos in South Florida are hard to come by at these kinds of prices, especially with such a long list of amenities that Casa Costa affords. At Casa Costa, you not only get more amenities for your dues, but for the next 2 years they're FREE.

"Casa Costa accommodates every kind of South Florida lifestyle. Whether buyers are snow birds seeking a seasonal home, or retirees intending to stay here year-round, the condo development is unique because of the classy amenities that just aren't found elsewhere," according to Elbaum.

She says that Casa Costa is a fabulous community for boating and beach enthusiasts, providing next-door marina access to the Intracoastal with a yacht club and dock privileges, amazing inland and ocean views, and all sorts of other amenities like a fitness center, hotel-class valet service and concierge, and 20,000 s.f. of shopping and restaurants just a short stroll outside the building.

"One of the most well-received amenities that residents love is the shuttle service to and from the private beach resort, which is nestled next to a wealthy community of beach homes," she says.

According to Elbaum, buyers are coming from all over to make Casa Costa their home.

"Whether you're a local wanting to upgrade your lifestyle, or escaping the colder northern climates of Canada or New York, or an International buyer seeking a sund real estate investment, you'll be welcome at the Casa Costa condos in Boynton Beach," she says. "Not only that, you'll save a ton of money and have fun doing it!"
