

Lisle Area Web Design Firm, Design & Promote, Joins Local Chamber Of Commerce

Design & Promote, a company that provides SEO web design in Lisle IL, has joined the local Chamber of Commerce.

LISLE, IL, USA, November 19, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Lisle Chamber of Commerce has a new member. Design & Promote, a Lisle web design firm, has joined the business group. Design & Promote specializes in SEO website design and works with clients throughout the Chicagoland area and beyond.

"We're very eager to take our business relationships in Lisle to the next level and feel that membership in the Lisle Chamber of Commerce is the best way to do that. We've been welcomed with open arms and are meeting some great business leaders in the area," said Bruce Jones, CEO of Design & Promote.

Design & Promote can expect several membership benefits from the Lisle Chamber of Commerce. The Lisle Chamber of Commerce provides several programs every year that help facilitate business relationships and opportunities. Programs such as monthly luncheons, business after hours and ribbon-cuttings are core Chamber activities. The Chamber also serves as an advocate for their members through their Government Affairs Committee. The Committee keeps tabs on local, state and federal issues that could affect members. The group also maintains a mentorship program, which helps newer members meet with other Chamber members and learn to use their membership benefits to their full advantage.

In addition to membership events, the Lisle Chamber of Commerce also participates in local community events including the Memorial Day Parade, the annual Eyes to the Skies Festival in July, the annual 5K/10K run, Cruise Nights in downtown Lisle and a scholarship program for graduating high school students.

"We're looking forward to taking part in Chamber events and activities and expect to make some strong business connections while we learn more about the community and the businesses that are located here. Lisle is a very friendly and welcoming town with a lot to offer both business owners and residents and we're happy to be a part of the community," said Jones.

Already a member of the Naperville Area Chamber of Commerce, Design & Promote is known for offering free internet marketing seminars in their offices. Past programs covered such topics as search engine optimization strategies and the use of photos and images in social media campaigns.

In addition to custom website design in Lisle, Design & Promote offers SEO consulting and design services for print media as well, including newsletters, brochures and logos. The company offers an all-in-one approach to Internet marketing through their SEO web design in Lisle. Starting with the design of the site, the company then helps ensure the site is found by utilizing current SEO strategies.
