EINPresswire.com/ -- The combination of new and old is an emerging trend in all elements of design, and that motif is captured perfectly in the newest creation from Summit New Homes. The home builders in WA have unveiled The Chateau, a French provincial themed home now on display in Alkimos.

We designed The Chateau to allow buyers to truly feel like the King and Queen of their home.”

The Chateau is the first home from Summit to offer a front living design. The unique c-shape layout wraps around a central courtyard which features a luxurious swimming pool complete with waterfall and electronic retractable sun shade. Meanwhile, the innovative design allows for a spacious open concept living, dining and kitchen area, featuring an integrated bar that provides convenient access and views to the outside, perfect for relaxing with the family or entertaining guests.

"We designed The Chateau to allow buyers to truly feel like the King and Queen of their home. At Summit, we continue to push ourselves to innovate, and the unique layout of this home bears that out. We've combined the best elements of French provincial with modern conveniences and influence to arrive at a stunning home that will suit nearly any taste," said Sandra Muller of Summit New Homes (www.summitnewhomes.com.au).

The 4 bedroom, 2 bath design offers a wealth of entertainment options inside as well as out, with a roomy home theatre room adjacent to the dining area and courtyard. With separate study and IT nook there's also plenty of areas of the home to retreat to when there's work to be done. The home's master suite meanwhile offers an indulgent ensuite with top-quality finishes and fittings as well as spacious closet space and convenient direct outdoor access.

"There's a flow and elegance to the design of The Chateau that needs to be seen to be truly appreciated. Because of the open courtyard, each area of the home feels connected, yet there is plenty of room to find a more private retreat if desired. The phrase 'something for everyone' gets thrown around a lot, but The Chateau manages to live up to that promise," Muller said.

For those interested in touring Summit's latest design, The Chateau display home is located at the Trinity Estate on Altea Way in Alkimos. Opening hours are Monday and Wednesday, 2pm-5pm, Saturday, Sunday and public holidays from 1pm-5pm.
