

New Generation Homes Classic Family Home Designs Start At $164,900 But Don't Sacrifice Amenities

New Generation Homes, family home builders in Perth, have introduced their Classic Range of homes starting at just $164,900.

PERTH, WEST AUSTRALIA, AUSTRALIA, November 26, 2013 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- New Generation Homes has launched a new range of homes that make homeownership more affordable but don't sacrifice amenities to do so. The Classic Range of homes starts at just $164,900 and features three of the builder's most popular home designs: The Spirit Classic, The Australis Classic and The Pinnacle Classic.

The Classic Range makes a feature-packed new family home in Perth affordable to many.

"These three homes represent the best value in Western Australia. They are our most popular designs for good reason. They're packed with the features and amenities that today's homebuyers want and feature open-living floorplans that maximise the use of space. Prices start at just $164,900 putting the Classic Range within reach of many homebuyers, even first homebuyers," said Sandra Muller of New Generation Homes (www.newgenerationhomes.com.au).

New Generation Homes is well-known for their family home designs that blend luxurious fittings and affordable prices. The builders in Perth have made sure to follow through with that philosophy in The Classic Range. The three single-storey home designs all feature superior fittings and fixtures including:

- High quality Blanco stainless steel appliances
- Soft closures to all doors and drawers
- Vitreous china basins and toilet suites
- Stainless steel double bowl kitchen sink
- Semi-frameless pivot door
- Screen to ensuite and bathroom showers

This seamless blending of function with quality construction and amenities have earned New Generation Homes many awards in building excellence. Most recently, New Generation was honored with a Housing Excellence Award from the Master Builders Western Australia: the 2013 Excellence in Building Practice Award, Most Affordable Family Home.

Besides awards and honors to give homebuyers confidence that New Generation Homes is the right builder for them, the builder is part of The Summit Homes Group. Summit is one of the most established home builders in WA with 35 years of experience behind them. Even more impressive is New Generation Homes' 25-year structural guarantee, which takes away some of the worry from homebuyers who are nervous about receiving follow-up care from their builder should a structural problem arise in the future.

"I encourage any homebuyer who has been waiting for the perfect moment to purchase a home to visit New Generation Homes and see The Classic Range homes in person. There are no more affordable, high-quality homes available than these three designs from New Generation Homes and lots are going fast. Interested buyers should make an appointment soon to ensure they get the best lots," said Muller.
