The newest herbal shisha to hit the market and is taking the hookah world by storm has been getting allot of press lately and according to sources is also about to sign a 6 figure contract with another major celebrity as a spokes person.

Blaze, based in New York, has been on the market under a year and is now being considered the best herbal in the world today. Their explosive flavors and unique branding names, such as the very popular Santa's Cane and Vampires Blood, is making a major impact in the hookah community.

But according to Blaze Shisha Owner Joe LiBrandi they are only just beginning. "We have been getting orders from around the world. Our distributors in Canada and the UK have been very busy but we are not about to stop now. Not only will we be releasing more Exotic Blends, but in the very near future we will be going live with eBlaze which will not only have more flavor then most but also more puffs per pen.

Blaze Shisha now has 20 flavors and 2 lines. Exotic Blends and Basic Blends. In 2014 they will also be coming out with a "Java Joe" line of coffee flavored shishas.
