

IT Governance launches value-added documentation toolkit offers this December

ELY, UK, December 9, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IT Governance, the leading provider of cyber security, IT governance, risk management and compliance product and services, has launched value-added documentation toolkit offers in December. These limited-time offers will expire on 23rd December 2013.

The documentation toolkits, covering subject areas such as ISO27001, ISO22301, COBIT® 5 and ITIL®, have been designed by IT Governance Publishing (ITGP) to help management systems implementers around the world to implement and comply with best practice standards and frameworks.

Hannah Baldwin, Head of Publishing said, "As a global leader in IT-GRC publishing, we are committed to providing practical, modern and up-to-date resources to help professionals worldwide meet their project deadlines and objectives. Our documentation toolkits do exactly that – they contain all documents required by the relevant standard, are customisable and easy to navigate through. Moreover, customer feedback suggests that they considerably accelerate and simplify the document-creation process."

Until 23rd December 2013, selected documentation toolkits come with added resources to save customers time and money with their implementation projects and professional development.

The toolkits included in this December promotion are:

- ISO27001 2013 ISMS Standalone Documentation Toolkit - www.itgovernance.co.uk/shop/p-1462.aspx
- ISO 22301 Business Continuity Management System (BCMS) Implementation Toolkit - www.itgovernance.co.uk/shop/p-1039.aspx
