New American Funding, a national mortgage banker, is pleased to announce that they have once again been selected as one of The Orange County Register's Top Workplaces for 2013.

The OC Register Top Workplaces program highlights companies that were voted the best places to work in the Orange County Region. Based solely on employee feedback, the goal of the survey is to gauge and measure how employees feel about their workplace. WorkplaceDynamics, LLP, a leading research firm on organizational health and employee engagement, conducts and tallies the surveys. The survey questions gave insight to the workplace experience and also allowed for comments and suggestions from employees at New American Funding.

This is the second year in a row that New American Funding has made the Top Workplaces program, indicating that Rick and Patty Arvielo's strides to ensure a great corporate culture of family, healthy living and community are working.

The company has experienced immense success and growth this year, opening new branches in Arizona, Colorado, Nevada, Texas, and Washington. The growth is expected to continue with expansion into Utah. Although New American Funding has grown in size, it still runs today with that family feel that owners Rick and Patty Arvielo have infused in the day to day operations of the company.
