

Focus Reports launches www.EnergyBoardroom.com

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, December 13, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Focus Reports is proud to announce the launch of its new website for the energy sector, EnergyBoardroom.com, replacing the company's previous energy website, energy.focusreports.net. Combining executive insight from the oil and gas and power sectors, the new site is the number one resource for those looking beyond figures and who want to share the experience of thousands of their peers from abroad.

EnergyBoardroom.com is unique, because it allows you into the offices of some of the most powerful executives in the energy sector, and gives you their opinions on the sector and where it is headed”

Reports Ltd*

Designed to give readers rapid and easy access to a wealth of information, data and insight, the new EnergyBoardroom site features interviews from decision-makers, executives, politicians and regulators, as well as a who's who directory of opinion leaders and companies and over 60 country reports from the most important energy markets in the world.

The 'From our Partners' section of the site will feature articles written by essential service providers to the oil and gas and power industries, such as lawyers, consultants, accountants, human resource specialists and sales and marketing organizations. These stories will allow experts to communicate directly with executives on topics such as M&A, taxation, regulation, contracting and human resources, amongst others.

EnergyBoardroom also features a 'Facts & Figures' section, which serves as a complement to the editorial content provided by partners, as well as the country reports that are available on the website. This section will feature standardized data for each country page to provide readers with a quick snapshot of market conditions and trends through relevant facts.

With improved navigability, Focus Reports hopes that the new EnergyBoardroom will become an invaluable resource for all its users.
