

Global 7 Technologies Announces Partnership with JurInnov

Global Discovery Network to complement JurInnov's information security and computer forensic offerings

CLEVELAND, OH, USA, December 19, 2013

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Global 7 Technologies, the makers of Global Discovery Network, a secure cloud-based virtual data room that is used for the storage, collaboration, distribution and review of documents, today announces a partnership with JurInnov (www.jurinnov.com), a business that works with IT and legal departments to help with the integration of technology solutions.

Through this partnership, JurInnov will make Global Discovery Network available to clients to add increased functionality to current offerings, including:

- * Global Server Network (Asia, Europe, North America and South America)
- * Robust Data Preview, Processing and Management Functionality
- * Intuitive User Interfaces
- * Innovative Platforms
- * Straightforward Pricing Models

"JurInnov is a perfect fit for our partner program," stated Brad Mixner, CEO of Global 7 Technologies. "We look forward to working with them and their clients on integrating technology offerings for information security and computer forensics projects."

"We are thrilled to be adding Global 7 Technologies and the Global Discovery Network to our list of partners," stated Timothy M. Opsitnick, founder and general counsel of JurInnov. "Our focus is on eDiscovery, forensics and eSecurity and Global Discovery Network will be a great complement to our current technical offerings."
