Florida State, heads in to the BCS National Championship with a undefeated record of 13-0 overall and the No.1 ranked team in the nation. The Seminoles are led by freshman sensation Jameis Winston, who was nothing short of spectacular during the 2013 regular season. Winston, is just 20 years old and at 6-4, 228 pounds proved that he has the necessary tools to become a NFL prospect from the Quarterback position in the future. Statistically, the QB was superb, as Winston threw for 3,820 yards, 38 touchdowns, 10 interceptions, and was the primary reason why the Seminoles were No.1 in the nation in scoring, with a average of 53.0 points per game.

The Florida State receiving corps is among the best in the country and will cause matchup problems for the Auburn Tigers on the defensive side of the football. Both Rashad Greene and Kelvin Benjamin are NFL caliber players and were close to 1,000 yards on the season, while running back Devonta Freeman led the team on the ground with 943 yards, 13 TD's on 5.8 yards a carry.

Auburn, comes in to the BCS National Championship at 12-1 and ranked No.2 in the nation. The Tigers enter with the most dominant rushing attack in NCAA College Football and feature two running backs who rushed for over 1,000 yards on the season. Tre Mason, has been often compared to former Dallas Cowboys running back Tony Dorsett because of his quickness in the open field, and was flat out dominant during the regular season. The 20 year old rushed for 1,621 yards and 22 TD's, while QB Nick Marshall added 1,023 yards and 11 Touchdowns of his own.
