

Chicago Divorce Attorney Michael Craven Authors Chapter In New Family Law Book

The chapter by the respected divorce lawyer in Chicago, and Partner at Beermann Pritikin Mirabelli Swerdlove LLP.

CHICAGO, IL, USA, January 14, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Beermann Pritikin Mirabelli Swerdlove LLP Partner Michael C. Craven, in recognition of his experience and expertise as a leading Chicago divorce attorney, was chosen to author a chapter in the recently released family law title, Inside the Minds: Strategies for Family Law in Illinois, 2014 ed.

The book, published by Aspatore Books, a Thomson Reuters business, provides readers with an authoritative voice and insider's perspective on the process of litigating divorce, custody and paternity cases in Illinois

"This new book offers some wonderful insights from some of the brightest legal minds in the state, and it's been my honor to contribute a few of my own thoughts and experiences," said Craven, partner at Beermann Pritikin Mirabelli Swerdlove LLP (<http://www.divorcelawyerschicago.org/>).

The chapter details how the current economic condition is impacting Chicago divorce attorneys and their clients.

Michael C. Craven

The book was co-authored by partners from leading law firms throughout the state of Illinois, and details the modern challenges faced by family law attorneys, and some of the innovative solutions they've devised to overcome them. Some of the topics covered in the book include custody arrangements, maintenance agreements and effective communication between parties.

Craven's chapter, titled "Economic Issues and Other Concerns Impacting Illinois Family Law Attorneys and their Clients", focuses on how the downturn in the economy has affected divorce proceedings, both for family lawyers, as well as the individuals they represent.

"Financial concerns are often a component of family law cases, but the recent economic instability has had a direct impact on the way attorneys and their clients are approaching the process in general. I wanted to explore these unique challenges and offer something of an insider's perspective on how a divorce lawyer in Chicago such as myself is working to address them," Craven said.

Craven has practiced law in Illinois since 1984 and is a Fellow of the prestigious American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers and has been recognized as a top Chicago divorce attorney by the Leading Lawyers Network. Mr. Craven represents clients in all areas of traditional and collaborative family law including divorce, property division, business valuation, tax, locating hidden assets and income, custody, child support, removal/relocation, paternity, domestic violence, grandparents' rights and the preparation of prenuptial and postnuptial agreements. Craven been included on the list of Illinois Super Lawyers since 2009, which features only those attorneys who represent the top 5% of practicing attorneys in the state.
