HOUSTON, TEXAS, USA, January 16, 2014

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Local author, attorney, and business strategist helps small business owners and entrepreneurs to achieve business success and to "Be on Purpose" with their life, family and business

NPR's Briefcase Radio Workshops featured Houston-based author and small business expert, Miriam Nicole Huffman, as a guest on the highly rated show, recorded in Baltimore Maryland and heard throughout the East Coast area.

"Briefcase Radio Workshops" features an interview format, with host Andrea Garris Jackson interviewing some of the best business, marketing and financial minds from around the world. Nicole Huffman was one of the recent guests, discussing small business trends for 2014 and how business owners can position themselves to "Be on Purpose" in the New Year.

Miriam Nicole Huffman, Esquire, CEO of One Loop Consulting, Incorporated, Business strategist and small business coach, is the author of "The Lifestyle Plan Strategist," and "Peaceful Pain." She provides business consulting services for entrepreneurs of start-ups and small businesses. As a business owner herself, Miriam Nicole designs her business services to help clients achieve business success that can only be found through building a strong foundation where their individual faith, family, and finances work in harmony. It is her belief that one cannot labor in freedom when the foundation is in chaos. In an effort to avoid a future collapse, Huffman strives to assist the entrepreneur in establishing a firm footing from the start.

Briefcase Radio Workshops is produced by Andrea Garris Jackson and the talented team from WEAA on the campus of Morgan State University.
