The Bell Centre in Montreal will be the host of tonight's 175 pound boxing match between former Light heavyweight champion Jean Pascal and former IBF Super Middleweight champion Lucian Bute. During training camp Pascal brought in former 1990s fighter of the decade Roy Jones jr to help prepare him for tonight's big fight. Th 44 year old Jones is also expected to be in Pascal's corner for the bout.

Pascal, comes in to the fight with a record of 28 wins, two losses and 17 knockouts. The 31 year old is extremely talented and blessed with tremendous speed, and athletic ability, but in order for Pascal to fully take advantage of his abilities he will need to improve his fundamentals and technique. The former 175 pound champion won the WBC Light Heavyweight title with a convincing win over Chad Dawson in 2010, but lost the title to Bernard Hopkins in 2011.

Lucian Bute, enters the bout with a record of 31 wins, 1 loss and 24 knockouts. After losing to Carl Froch for the IBF Super Middleweight championship, the 33 year old was able to bounce back and come away with a unanimous decision victory over Denis Grachev.
