

Lisbon International Surrealism Now at Roque Gameiro House Amadora

The Roque Gameiro House, in Amadora, Lisbon, hosts the exhibition International Surrealism Now, conceptualized by Santiago Ribeiro.

LISBON, ESTREMADURA, PORTUGAL, January 23, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- From November 30 to January 25, 2014.

International Surrealism Now” began in Coimbra, in 2010, when Santiago Ribeiro conceived a major exhibition which was organized by the Bissaya Barreto Foundation. The event was presented in Conímbriga, celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Conimbriga Monographic Museum (second most visited museum in Portugal) and, subsequently, went to Paris, with the support of the GAPP – Portugal Presente Art Gallery and Liba WS, and once again organized by the Bissaya Barreto Foundation and Santiago Ribeiro, and was later presented in Madrid, with the support of Yamal Din.

Santiago Ribeiro requested the partnership of artist Victor Lages (who developed the project ” Utopia of Fantastic Art “), for the purpose of organizing exhibitions in the Lisbon Region.

The event features artworks from 29 countries.
